ORDER OF LIVE/ONLINE WORSHIP

PRELUDE

“Day of Arising” (arr. Anne Krentz Organ)

WELCOME

CONFESS & FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, who creates us, redeems us, and calls us by name.
Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

God of grace and mercy,
we confess to you this day that our hearts are often cold and indifferent to the needs of a broken world. We confess that our sins have caused us to focus upon ourselves instead of our neighbors in need. Where there is anxiety in us, fill us with unshakable faith. Where we are self-centered, fill us with Christ’s compassion for the lost and hurting. Where we are thirsty, fill us with streams of living water. Where we are cold and calloused from sin, soften our hearts with the fire of the Holy Spirit so that we may serve you with joy. Forgive us again, Lord, for the sake of Jesus.

“Our God is indeed a consuming fire,” (Heb. 12:29) who purifies the broken and kindles a flame of compassion and love for the whole world. Therefore, in the name of the Triune God, ☩ Holy and Immortal, you are free from the imperfections that shackle you to apathy. May your heart burn for the poor and suffering and may flames of conscious action ignite into God’s vision of wholeness for the whole planet. Amen.

with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

READING

Acts 2:1-13

When the Feast of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Without warning there was a sound like a strong wind, gale force—no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building. Then, like a wildfire, the Holy Spirit spread through their ranks, and they started speaking in a number of different languages as the Spirit prompted them.

There were many Jews staying in Jerusalem just then, devout pilgrims from all over the world. When they heard the sound, they came on the run. Then when they heard, one after another, their own mother tongues being spoken, they were blown away. They couldn't for the life of them figure out what was going on, and kept saying, "Aren't these all Galileans? How come we're hearing them talk in our various mother tongues?"

Parthians, Medes, and Elamites;
Visitors from Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia,
Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia,
Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene;
Immigrants from Rome, both Jews and proselytes;
Even Cretans and Arabs!

"They're speaking our languages, describing God's mighty works!"

Their heads were spinning; they couldn't make head or tail of any of it. They talked back and forth, confused: "What's going on here?"

Others joked, "They're drunk on cheap wine."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

OFFERING PRAYER

Blessed are you, O God, maker of all things. Through your goodness you have blessed us with these gifts: our selves, our time, and our possessions. PRAYERS OF GOD'S PEOPLE

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
