Description: Would you describe yourself as being in the 3rd quarter of your life? You don't feel like you belong in a senior's group, but you are beyond the non-stop activities that come with kids and a family. And are you a female that has found yourself navigating life on your own—either by chance or by choice? Then come join us once a month as we explore the things our area has to offer and meet new friends. Dates and activities will vary by month, but could include events such as: hiking, breakfast gathering, apple orchard, 3 Mile Arboretum Walk, fall festivals, Feed My Starving Children, or Bluebirds and Blooms.
