A More Just World Seminars

Age Range: Adults

Days/Times: First Wednesdays of each month at 6:30 PM

Description: When it comes to matters of race in our community, St. Andrew is dedicated to helping create a more just world for all people through listening, learning, growing, and acting differently. Our monthly listen and learning post will provide for us a dedicated evening in a fellowship of people wanting to dedicate themselves to this process on an ongoing basis. Join one of the St. Andrew pastors and others from the St. Andrew community for conversation and learning about race and healing through the use of speakers, readings, videos, and other media as we rally around the cause to create a more just world for all. We partner with Pastor Kelly Chatman, founder and Executive Director of Center for Leadership and Neighborhood Engagement (CLNE). Under Pastor Chatman's leadership, the organization helps church's like St. Andrew create and implement plans of understanding and action furthering racial justice and healing.

A More Just World

All people are God's children. The death of George Floyd and the aftermath reminds us there is still far too much injustice in our communities and in our world. We have work to do. Together, we will listen, learn, share, encourage, and act. We commit ourselves to this task for a more just world.

A More Just World Seminars

Days/Times: First Wednesdays of each month at 6:30 PM

Description: When it comes to matters of race in our community, St. Andrew is dedicated to helping create a more just world for all people through listening, learning, growing and acting differently. Our monthly listen and learning post will provide for us a dedicated evening in a fellowship of people wanting to dedicate themselves to this process on an ongoing basis. Join one of the St. Andrew pastors and others from the St. Andrew community for conversation and learning about race and healing through the use of speakers, readings, videos, and other media as we rally around the cause to create a more just world for all. We partner with Pastor Kelly Chatman, founder and Executive Director of Center for Leadership and Neighborhood Engagement (CLNE). Under Pastor Chatman's leadership, the organization helps church's like St. Andrew create and implement plans of understanding and action furthering racial justice and healing.
